

I<sup>2</sup>IT's Academic Partners

I<sup>2</sup>IT maintains an industry-relevant and up-to-date curriculum, by partnering with leading tech-application organizations. These organizations provide valuable insight in the development and delivery of the programs. Students have first-hand knowledge of the tools and software provided by these corporations, which are the backbone of the industry today.

ALTERA provides cutting-edge, specialized technical training material, such as literature, course content and software. ALTERA provides Quartus-II and Nios-II licenses, along with IP cores for DSP builder, FFT / IFFT, FIR compiler, and NCO compiler, for enabling industry-standard projects and acceptance of students in the industry.

Cadence is supporting I2IT Pune under university support program. Faculty as well as students are getting direct support from CADENCE source link along with training sessions at Bangalore office. Students of I2IT are eligible to participate in the design contests conducted by cadence and internships at CADENCE. The lab is well equipped with all the full functional tools from cadence.

Computer Associates Inc (CA) is one of the world's largest IT Management software providers. CA provides industry-leading solutions, for hands-on training and carrying out advanced education and research. These include Unicenter Network and Systems Management (Unicenter NSM), eTrust, and ERwin Data Modeler.

Fluent is the world leader among commercial computational fluid dynamics (CFD) vendors. Fluent is the largest producer of CFD software and the fourth largest computer-aided engineering (CAE) company. Headquartered in Lebanon, New Hampshire, USA, with offices and distributors on all continents, it supplies CFD software and services to hundreds of companies across dozens of industries, including over two-thirds of the blue chip manufacturing companies in the world.

The Intel® Higher Education Program is part of the Intel Education Initiative - a sustained commitment in collaboration with educators and government leaders worldwide to help today's students prepare for the demands of tomorrow. In India, the Intel® Higher Education Program works closely with premier institutions and universities along with the Government, to help enrich the quality of technological and intellectual human resource available for the rapidly proliferating technology economy.

SAP is a recognized leader in providing collaborative business solutions. SAP provides the latest technologies on functional integration in ERP, using SAP modules like FI, MM, SD & CO and business analysis. SAP also provides CRM and BW components for strategic business advantage. The students are given hands-on practice in configuring the above mentioned modules.

SAS is a leader in Business Intelligence and Analytics, and provides software that answers strategic business questions. SAS provides business intelligence solutions for students, to learn hands-on skills, and enable them to gain confidence in taking up challenging projects and further careers in BI and other business solutions.

TIBCO provides software and services that help companies orchestrate assets across the enterprise in real time. TIBCO provides solutions for EAI, Middleware and BPM, and students can further substantiate their understanding using TIBCO's knowledge base.

Listed alphabetically

I<sup>2</sup>IT's Academic Partners provide state-of-the-art tools and softwares for students to gain hands-on experience